

REFERENCE FOR NANIETTA SELASIE AGBITOR

It is with immense gratitude and pleasure that we write this recommendation for Selasie, who has been an extraordinary Newborn Care Specialist (NCS) for our family over the past six months. Selasie exceeded all expectations and has been an integral part of our baby's development, as well as a constant source of support for us as new parents. We cannot recommend her highly enough to anyone in need of expert, compassionate care for their newborn.

From the moment Selasie arrived, it was clear that she has a deep love and understanding for babies, and her commitment to their well-being is unparalleled. She treated our newborn with the same care and affection as if it were her own child, creating a nurturing and safe environment that put us at ease immediately. Her warmth, attentiveness, and fun-loving personality allowed our baby to thrive, and her expert guidance turned our little one into an excellent sleeper and napper—an invaluable gift for any parent!

What truly sets Selasie apart is not just her expertise but her approachability and dedication to the families she works with. She was always available for questions or concerns, no matter how small, and her advice was grounded in knowledge yet presented without any pressure. She made thoughtful recommendations but always respected our decisions as parents, working collaboratively to find the best path forward. Her ability to combine expertise with flexibility made us feel empowered and confident in our parenting choices.

In addition to being knowledgeable and responsible, Selasie is also incredibly caring and attentive to every detail. She went above and beyond in all aspects of her care, always anticipating our needs and offering help beyond what was expected. We came to trust her completely, and her presence in our home quickly became a source of comfort. She feels like a part of our family now, and we will miss her dearly.

It is without hesitation that we recommend Selasie to any family in need of a Newborn Care Specialist. Her professionalism, compassion, and dedication make her an invaluable asset. We plan to stay in touch with her for many years to come, and we feel fortunate to have had her by our side during such a special time in our lives.
